☞ As the Publication of this Gazette every Saturday, is intended to be continued, no ADVERTISEMENTS will be taken in after Friday Morning for that Week.

CHARLES-TOWN, February 22.

CAPT. Peter Neesgate, master of the ship John Galley, of and for Boston, from the Bay of Honduras, who put in here on the 13th inſtant, for proviſions, &c. informs us, That on the 25th of December laſt, two Spaniſh gallies, and an arm'd brigt. (with an Engliſh veſſel they had taken) appear'd at the mouth of the River Blaze (commonly called the old River, and where moſt of the Engliſh that inhabit the Bay are ſeated: That one Henry Stevenſon in a brigt. belonging to Rhode-Iſland, attempted to go out that day, (tho' the commodore of the Engliſh fleet there fired 3 guns to bring him to, leſt he ſhould be taken by the Spaniards, who would, in that caſe, receive particular information of the ſituation of the fleet) but anchored that night at Water-Key: That on the 26th the Spaniards ſent in their boats, and took Stevenſon; after which, the gallies, the arm'd brigt. and prizes came in, and anchor'd that night a good way within the key, plainly in ſight of the fleet: That hereupon the Engliſh immediately form'd a line of battle compoſed of the following ſhips, viz. the Godolphin of London, Capt. Alexander Belcher, commodore, the Rottenbeed of Leith, Capt. David Littlejohn, the Elton of Briſtol, Capt. Peter Griffin, and the Indian King, of New-York, Capt. Troup, and made every diſpoſition neceſſary for their defence and protection of the fleet: That on the 27th, in the morning, the arm'd brigt. came in to the northward and attack'd the Indian King, while the gallies brought up by their ſterns, within gun-ſhot of the reſt of the line, upon whom they play'd their caſhew pieces, which were 18 pounders, pretty ſmartly; That Capt. Troup, gave the brigt. a very warm reception, and ſoon diſabled her, ſo that ſhe was oblig'd to go out; which being obſerv'd by the gallies, they firſt weigh'd, and ſpoke with her, then return'd and anchor'd, in the ſame manner as before, but within point blank of the line, renewing their attack with great vigor, which produced a very ſmart engagement: That the Spaniards, being very roughly treated in this ſecond attack, wherein the whole line play'd upon them, were at laſt convinced they had not a ſufficient force to expect ſucceſs, and left the fleet and river: That Capt. Troup, ſuſpecting they deſign'd to come in another way to take the veſſels protected by the line, ſlipp'd his cable, and went out after them ſo far as could remove his ſuſpicion, and then return'd to the river: But, the Spaniards having given Stevenſon and his people their liberty and boat, with a meſſage to the fleet, importing, that they were only gone for a reinforcement, with which they would ſoon return, and the whole fleet (as well as the baymen) being in great want of proviſions and other neceſſaries, it was reſolved that all the ſhipping ſhould get ready to quit the bay in one day; which being done accordingly, they all (except Capt. Griffin, who had not yet got all his water in) left it on the 9th of January, being 36 in number: That moſt of the bay men embark'd on board ſome of the fleet for the Muſquito ſhore: That of the whole fleet, but 4 or 5 of the ſmaller veſſels were loaded, and many had hardly a proper ſet of ballaſt in: And that among the fleet, were a ſhip, a ſnow, a brigt. and ſchooner belonging to this port; the maſters names Adams, Kitts, Williams and Petticary.

The Commiſſioners for building the Church of ST. MICHAEL in this Town, having waited on His Excellency the Governor to deſire that He would be pleaſed to lay the firſt Stone; on Monday laſt, His Excellency, attended by ſeveral of the Members of His Majeſty's Hon. Council, and of the Aſſembly of this Province, with the Commiſſioners, and other Gentlemen, was pleaſed to proceed to the Spot, and lay the ſame accordingly, and thereon a Sum of Money; a Stone was then laid by each of the Gentlemen that attended His Excellency, followed by the loud Acclamations of a numerous Concourſe of People that had aſſembled to ſee the Ceremony; after which the Company proceeded to Mr. Gordon's, where a handſome Entertainment was provided by the Commiſſioners: Dinner over, His Majeſty's Health was drank, followed by a Diſcharge of the Cannon at Granville's Baſtion, then the Healths of all the Royal Family, and other loyal Toaſts; and the Day was concluded with peculiar Pleaſure and Satisfaction. ——— This Church will be built on the Plan of one of Mr. Gibſon's Deſigns; and, 'tis tho't, will exhibit a fine Piece of Architecture when compleated: The Steeple being deſigned much larger than that of St. Philip's, will have a fine Set of Bells.

CAROLINA BEER

At his BREW-HOUSE in one of Mr. Middleton's Tenements, in QUEEN-STREET.

The ſaid SCOTT being now fully determined to proceed in the Brewing Buſineſs; having hitherto been obliged to procure his Materials from England; and conceiving, that every Man ſhould GIVE (as well as have) the Preference and all Encouragement poſſible, in whatever Country he reſides; aſſures the Public, that all the BEER by him made, and vended as ſuch, ſhall be of pure Malt and Hops, and entirely free from any Adulterations whatever (which are too common, and very pernicious); and that he will ſo far prefer and encourage the People of this Province, as to contract, with ſo many Gentlemen Planters as will, for Four Thouſand Buſhels of BARLEY, yearly, to be delivered between the firſt Days of September and March, at Fifteen Shillings per Buſhel, if good; and to give Twenty Pounds, for every Hundred Weight of good well-cured HOPS; which will enable him, at the ſame Time, not only to ſell his Beer cheaper, but alſo to make it better and ſtronger (much of the Barley that is imported being ſpoiled in the malting, and both Malt and Hops in the Carriage): But, as he cannot be ſupplied here againſt the enſuing Seaſon, he has already ſent to England for Barley; yet makes no Doubt, that the Carolina Planters, from the Encouragement he now offers, will prevent future Importations of that Kind by
